

I am very strongly opposed to Sinclair issuing directives to its stations to air the Kerry film Stolen Honor. The FCC is not doing its job to oversee the public airwaves when it allows such blatant political bias to such a large corporation. In fact, I believe that we see here a good example of why the FCC needs to tighten regulations, and they should strip this company of its license.